

Down Ampney Village Hall

THE BEST VILLAGE HALL IN THE COTSWOLDS

Best location

Down Ampney Village Hall is ideally located in the centre of the small picturesque village of Down Ampney. The village is famous as the birthplace of composer Ralph Vaughan-Williams, and the historic World War II Airfield from where daring missions were launched for Arnhem and D-Day. The village hall is easily accessible from Cirencester, Fairford and Swindon, along the A417 and A419, all within a 5-10 mile radius. Down Ampney Village Hall can be found via Google Maps or SatNav, using the postcode GL7 5QR..

Best Reputation

Down Ampney is proud to announce that its Village Hall is the first Village hall in Gloucestershire to be awarded the prestigious Hallmark Status 3 which recognises the very high standard and professional manner in which the Hall is managed. This award reflects the many new and diverse facilities now available within the hall which allow more and more different organisations and individuals to use the Hall for a wider range of activities and functions at very reasonable rates. Activities include dancing, bowling, aerobics, tai chi; functions include parties, receptions, and meetings. The hall is popular across a wide area, and many bookings arise from personal recommendations.
